7 Ayes Motion Carried

A motion was made by Mrs. McGrath and seconded by Mrs. O'Malley that the Board of Education Approve the following list of textbooks discussed and approved by the Instructional Materials Review Committee on June 11, 2009:

Geometry, Amsco, 2008. This is a new course to meet the new math sequence for Regents math.

Economics, Glencoe/McGraw Hill, 2009. This replaces the current textbook used in AP Economics, which has a copyright of 1998.

Sociology & You, Glencoe/McGraw Hill, 2008. There is currently no textbook in place for this Grade 12 Sociology course. The teacher has previewed this textbook for a year and finds it to be a good resource to replace the teacher developed materials gathered and to unify the course topics currently addressed.

Microsoft Office 2007, Glencoe/McGraw Hill, 2009. This class set of textbooks will upgrade the current software and allow for a smoother transition with Office 2007. The current books have nothing that coincides with Office 2007.

Lansingburgh High School

With economic times being what they currently are, Relay for Life was able to still raise about $5,000. They held a most improved students ceremony and 57 students were honored.

Knickerbacker Middle School

The eighth grade students just took their last state exam in social studies. They also held their sixth, seventh and eighth grade awards ceremonies.

Turnpike Elementary School

The fifth grade students had a wonderful time with the transition program introduced this year. The students were able to go to Knickerbacker Middle School, tour the building, meet the sixth grade teachers, have lunch in the cafeteria and watch a movie produced by the sixth grade faculty and students.

Rensselaer Park Elementary School

The end of the year Kindergarten picnic was held. The fifth grade moving up ceremony is tomorrow night at 6:00 p.m. at Rensselaer Park School. They also held their kindergarten moving up ceremony. This year the drama club put on a performance called "Rats" for Diamond Ridge Senior Citizens. Student Activity day is Wednesday. If the weather cooperates, the activities are all outside. Thursday morning the students will move up to their next grade, meet their teacher and receive their report cards.

Athletics

The softball team won sectionals. Alney Tobias was fifth in New York State. He was 15th out of 155 at the Nike Nations. He is an Emerging Elite. He is the top NYS Junior and achieved his personal best. Summer leagues are occurring. The football team is lifting and the volleyball and lacrosse teams are participating in off season workouts.
