

Lansingburgh

LANSINGBURGH CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT
TROY, NEW YORK

Free Programs for Parents Programas Gratis Para Los Padres

Parenting with a Purpose

Nancy T. Cupolo, Educational Consultant, Children First

Monday March 10, 2008 6:30 – 8:00 pm Turnpike Elementary School Library

Parenting can be difficult. Children don't come with a set of directions.

The presenter will give ideas about ways for us slow down and enjoy our children. Learn ways to help children be happy, healthy, and responsible. Refreshments provided. Child care provided.

Call 233-6802 to register.

Acting Not Reacting: Responding to Children's Behaviors

Nancy T. Cupolo, Educational Consultant, Children First

Thursday, March 27 6:30 – 8:00pm KMS/LHS Library Media Center

What makes children loving, kind, funny, and challenging? Learn ways to respond to children when they don't complete their work, are unprepared for class, won't do what they're told, or make destructive choices. Social skills, listening, choices, and reinforcement will be highlighted. Refreshments provided. Child care provided.

Call 233-6802 to register.

Emergent Literacy: The Drawing, Writing, Reading Connection

Nancy T. Cupolo, Educational Consultant, Children First

Thursday, April 3, 2008 10:00-11:40am Rensselaer Park Elementary School

Children draw, write and read. Learn about the drawing, writing and reading connection as children grow and develop. Art work from scribbles to writing can help children to become good readers and writers. Child care provided. Refreshments provided. Child care provided. Call 233-6802 to register.

Internet Safety: What Parents Need to Know

FBI Special Agent David Fallon and Capital Region Cyber Predator Task Force Officer Salvatore Greco, Rensselaer County Sheriffs Office

Monday, April 7 6:30- 8:00 pm KMS/LHS Library Media Center

Keep children safe when they are online. Learn about the dangers children can encounter when they are online.

Learn how child predators lure children. Due to the graphic nature of the content, please do not bring children to this session. Refreshments provided.

Call 233-6802 to register. No child care provided.